

The International Law & Organizations Program
at The Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Studies Johns Hopkins University

is pleased to invite you to a talk on:

“Current Trends in International Development Law”

with

Professor Rumu Sarkar

Georgetown University Law Center, Adjunct Professor; Millennium International Consulting, Senior Legal Consultant

Monday, February 22, 2010 at 12:30 pm

SAIS Rome Building, Room 806

1619 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C.

Professor Sarkar is currently serving as Senior Legal Advisor to CALIBRE Systems, a defense consulting group based in Alexandria, VA. Immediately prior to this position, she was the former General Counsel for the 2005 Defense Base Closure and Realignment (BRAC) Commission. She also served as the General Counsel for the Overseas Basing Commission, prior to joining the BRAC Commission.

Professor Sarkar was also the former Assistant General Counsel for Administrative Affairs for the Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC), and formerly a staff attorney with the Office of the General Counsel of the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID). She began her career as a litigation associate with two Wall Street law firms in New York.

She is an Adjunct Law Professor at the Georgetown University Law Center where she teaches an LL.M. seminar, and has extensively published legal texts and articles on a variety of subjects.

Professor Sarkar has authored two legal textbooks, INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT LAW, and TRANSNATIONAL BUSINESS LAW. She was awarded the 2007 First (Grand) Prix of the St. Cyr Foundation for her essay on “A Fearful Symmetry.” Her forthcoming publication, A FEARFUL SYMMETRY: THE NEW SOLDIER IN AN AGE OF ASYMMETRIC CONFLICT, will be released in April 2010.

She completed her undergraduate studies at Barnard College, Columbia University; her law degree from the Antioch School of Law; and her Masters of Law (LL.M.) degree, and her Ph.D. in Philosophy from Newnham College, Cambridge University. Her professional career reflects her work in government administrative and litigation work, development issues related to Rule of Law as well as international business transactions.

To RSVP please contact Tiffany Basciano at tbascia1@jhu.edu or 202-663-5982

Light Refreshments Will Be Served