

The Indian Journal of International Economic Law (IJIEL) is proud to invite submissions for the 1st IJIEL International Student Essay Competition. The salient details are as follow:

1. The topic is ‘TRIPS-plus Obligations and Free Trade Agreements (FTAs) with Developing Countries’.
2. Professor Carlos M Correa and Professor Daniel J Gervais have kindly consented to judge the best five entries to determine the winner.
3. The best essay will receive a prize of $750 and the second best will receive a prize of $250. The top few entries will also be considered for publication in the third issue (2010) of IJIEL subject to editorial policy.
4. The competition is open to all students (undergraduate upwards), excluding postgraduate and doctoral candidates.
5. Deadline for submissions is 15 June 2010.

Detailed rules and regulations, and information about IJIEL may be found at <http://www.ijiel.com>; or you can mail us at ijiel@nls.ac.in, or mail the Chief-Editor (Abhimanyu George Jain) at abhimanyugeorgejain@gmail.com.