

THE LAW OF THE SEA REPORTS

A periodic publication by the American Society of International Law on current issues of the Law of the Sea

Submission of manuscripts

The Law of the Sea Reports (LOS Reports) invites submission of manuscripts on current issues related to the Law of the Sea. Its primary focus is on questions of public international law, including closely related issues of domestic law. Also submissions on interdisciplinary topics on law-related aspects of marine science, maritime delimitation, marine exploration and dispute settlement are welcome.

The LOS Reports will not consider submissions where the content has been, or will be, published before it appears in this journal.

The LOS Reports does not require exclusive submissions. Priority consideration will, however, be accorded where the author states that the submission is exclusive for a specified period of at least six weeks and commits to accept an offer of publication within the specified time period. Authors should bear in mind that, as a professionally juried journal, the LOS Reports is rarely if ever able to make offers of publication in response to requests for expedited review within the time limits typically fixed by other journals that have made offers of publication.

Submissions should be in electronic form and should be transmitted as attachments to e-mail messages addressed to the Editor in Chief, Dr. Björn Arp, at arp@american.edu. Alternatively, a CD-ROM may be mailed to:

The LOS Reports currently uses Word 2007, but can convert manuscripts created in other word processing programs. Please specify the program used.

Format and style guidelines

Submissions are accepted for publication in either one of the following categories:

- Lead articles.
- Current Developments.
- Notes and Comments.

In addition to these categories of submissions, the LOS Reports also accepts submissions for other sections, depending on the specific needs of the journal, as for instance an 'in memoriam' or 'special monographic issue' on a specific topic. The details for such a submission should be discussed with the Editor in Chief before the submission of such a manuscript.

All manuscripts should be double-spaced in 12-point Times New Roman type; these formatting requirements cover all text, quotations, and footnotes.

- The maximum length for lead articles is 100 letter-sized pages, formatted as indicated.
- The maximum length for "Current Developments" and "Notes and Comments" submissions is 30 letter-sized pages, formatted as indicated.

The LOS Reports generally conforms to the footnote style of The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (19th ed. 2010) and the Chicago Manual of Style (16th ed. 2010). In addition to these sources, and for the sake of uniformity in the criteria used by ASIL publications, LOS Reports adopts the style guidelines of the American Journal of International Law (AJIL). For further information on AJIL style and formatting guidelines, see the AJIL Style Guide, available online at www.asil.org/ajil_style_guide.pdf.
