Present a Luncheon Program

The International Court of Justice: The Road Ahead

This luncheon program will highlight upcoming cases at the International Court of Justice (ICJ) and how developments at the ICJ will affect both international law and the Court itself. The Court is now being used by an entirely new universe of countries and is now addressing a wider range of disputes than ever before. Indeed, post-colonial concerns about the Court have been replaced by concerns among the wealthiest of countries. And boundary disputes abound. Our distinguished speakers, and our eminent moderator, bring an unequalled level of expertise and judgment to these issues. We invite you to listen in on their conversation.

Speakers: Ruth Wedgwood, Burling Professor of International Law, School of Advanced International Studies, Johns Hopkins Univ., and U.S. member, UN Human Rights Committee
David A. Colson, LeBoeuf, Lamb, Greene & MacRae LLP
John R. Crook, Commissioner, Eritrea-Ethiopia Claims Commission, and frequent counsel for the U.S. in past ICJ cases

Moderator: Judge Stephen M. Schwebel, former Judge and President, International Court of Justice

Date: Wednesday, October 3, 2007
