ASIL RESOURCES ON EARTH DAY 2007

WASHINGTON, DC – The American Society of International Law (ASIL) is pleased to make available a selection of web-based resources related to international law and the environment, compiled in anticipation of Earth Day 2007 (April 22, 2007.) To view the resources, visit the link <http://www.asil.org/resources/earthindex.html>. To speak with an ASIL member expert on international environmental law, contact Sheila Ward, ASIL Manager of External Relations, at sward@asil.org or 1-202-939-6018.

ASIL is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, educational membership organization. It was founded in 1906, chartered by the U.S. Congress in 1950, and has held Category II Consultative Status to the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations since 1993. ASIL's mission is to foster the study of international law and to promote the establishment and maintenance of international relations on the basis of law and justice. The Society's 4,000 members (from nearly 100 countries) comprise attorneys, academics, corporate counsel, judges, representatives of governments and nongovernmental organizations, international civil servants, students, and others interested in international law. For more information, visit www.asil.org.
