

LAW OF OCEANS & COASTS -- #797F

Professor Ann Powers
Fall 2008

Tuesday, 11:00am-1:00pm

TEXT: JOSEPH KALO ET AL. COASTAL & OCEAN LAW [3D EDITION]

All page references are to the assigned text unless otherwise noted.

A STATUTORY SUPPLEMENT: A number are available. See class home page..

I will not assign specific sections to read, but you should consult the relevant statute or treaty as you read the material. It is an important part of being prepared for class.

NOTE: The syllabus is likely to be altered, especially to accommodate any guest speakers who may join us.

DATE	ASSIGNMENT	PAGES
Session #1	Review Introductory PowerPoint materials on TWEN. Examine text's table of contents to familiarize yourself with subject matter of the course. Ch. 5 U.S. Rights and Jurisdiction in the Ocean Under the International Law of the Sea	TWEN 369-403
Session #2	U.S. Rights and Jurisdiction in the Ocean Under the International Law of the Sea [cont.] [includes federal vs. state authority in territorial seas]	403-439
Session #3	Ch. 6. Ocean Energy and Mineral Resources	441-471 503-511
Session #4	Ch. 7. Ocean & Coastal Fisheries	513-531 535-548 560-574
Session #5	Ocean & Coastal Fisheries [cont.]	595-618 629-636

Session #6	Ch. 8. Marine Wildlife Preservation	637-680
Session #7	Marine Wildlife Preservation [cont.]	681-683 694-704 709-736 746 754-759
Session #8	Ch. 9. Pollution of Coastal & Ocean Waters	773-811
Session #9	Pollution of Coastal & Ocean Waters [cont.]	811-856
Session #10	Ch. 1 Public & Private Interests in Coastal Lands and	1-18 45-64
Session #11	Public & Private Interests in Coastal Lands & Waters [cont.] Ch. 2. Protecting Water Quality & Water Habitats	64-96 97-100 117-119 126-128
Session #12	Ch. 3. Comprehensive Management of Coastal Development	213-217 221-230 236-254
Session #13	Comprehensive Management of Coastal Development Be prepared to discuss the Problem on page 318	303-334

Preston 222
422-4232
422-4261 fax
apowers@law.pace.edu

Assistant: Leslie Crincoli
422-4413
lcrincoli@law.pace.edu