

American Society
of International Law

asil.org/academicpartner
202.939.6003

Academic Partnership Advantages

Expand Opportunities for Your Faculty and Students to Connect with Leading Experts Across the Globe

PROFESSIONAL GROWTH

Empower and inspire students through career-focused advice, premium access to online and print resources, and exclusive discounts for ASIL programs and events. ASIL's meetings, programs, and interest group activities offer myriad ways for students to engage with international law.

VISIBILITY

Raise your law school's profile while enhancing the legal educational experience for your faculty and students by partnering with an elite international law community.

NETWORKING

Develop well-connected professionals by offering career development and effective mentoring initiatives that can lead to supportive relationships with leading international lawyers, scholars and policy makers.

Enjoy the benefits of belonging to an influential community of OVER 50 LEADING INSTITUTIONS committed to enhancing the research and careers of their faculty and student constituents.

BECOME AN ACADEMIC PARTNER

View the list of ASIL's academic partners and join online asil.org/academicpartner

For more information about program benefits contact Jack Karako 📞 202.939.6003 ✉️ jkarako@asil.org
asil.org/academicpartner

We have an important and integral partnership with ASIL, as co-sponsors of the Grotius Lecture at the ASIL Annual Meeting for the past 20 years. Our students see this as a "must go to" event to hear from preeminent experts in the field, network, and learn about resources and support to launch their international law careers.

- PADIDEH ALA'I, Professor of Law, and Faculty Director, International Legal Studies Program, American University Washington College of Law

ASIL's Academic Partnership has been tremendous for UCI Law School, including in providing resources for our students and our career services. Students learn of opportunities for pursuing international and transnational internships and careers that they would otherwise miss.

- GREGORY SHAFFER, Chancellor's Professor of Law; and Director, Center on Globalization, Law and Society, University of California, Irvine School of Law

Partnership with ASIL provides our law school community with an invaluable bridge to the world of international law. Our students have benefited from ample career-blazing opportunities afforded by the Partnership program; access to the ASIL job board; and the exposure to people and ideas at the ASIL Annual Meeting.

- JULIAN ARATO, Associate Professor of Law & Co-Director for the Dennis J. Block Center for the Study of International Business Law, Brooklyn Law School- 2019 ASIL Midyear Meeting Research Forum Host.

2019-2020 Academic Year Partnership Benefits Package

$5,000 U.S.-based partners
$3,500 International-based partners

CAREER SERVICES AND MENTORING

- One complimentary regular student registration for the 2020 Annual Meeting
- Complimentary registration to attend the ASIL Research Forum (Midyear Meeting) in the fall of 2019
- Free career development and mentoring events in your area as scheduling allows
- Free access to ASIL's member-only job board; it will include postings on summer and semester internships as well as full-time jobs related to international law
- Complimentary copy of ASIL's acclaimed career resource, Careers in International Law
- Online career training session for students and career services staff hosted by ASIL staff for students interested in international careers.

OPPORTUNITIES AND RESOURCES

- One complimentary regular faculty registration for the 2020 Annual Meeting
- Access to ASIL's library of videos featuring world-renowned international law scholars' and practitioners' presentations, and a growing inventory of resources to complement international law curricula
- Premium access to all AJIL journals, including the preeminent journal in the field, the American Journal of International Law
- Access to resources for teaching, research and publication
- Writing and speaking opportunities
- Engage with ASIL's 30+ international law interest groups
- Connect with leading publishers in the field

ASIL MEETINGS AND PROMOTIONAL BENEFITS

- Recognition as an Academic Partner in ASIL's Annual Meeting promotional materials (announcements, signage, website, and printed program)
- Online training session for career services team and interested faculty or staff
- Option to have ASIL co-sponsor and publicize events at your school
- Listing on asil.org as a 2019-2020 Academic Partner, including link to your website
- Promotional material displayed in the exhibit space at the ASIL Annual Meeting and Midyear Meeting
- One 1/2-page advertisement per issue of the American Journal of International Law
- Recognition in ASIL's Annual Year in Review

Our students and faculty members find the ASIL Academic Partnership to be a very valuable tool for connecting in the world of international law. It allows us to develop networks, access research and teaching materials, as well as to be linked with international law developments in the United States.

- LAURENCE BOISSON DE CHAZOURNES, Professor and Director of the Master in International Dispute Settlement (MIDS), University of Geneva Law School.

ASIL's Academic Partnership provides our students with outstanding career resources – especially access to ASIL job board and career advising. Our students undoubtedly benefit from the tremendous educational and networking opportunities through our Academic Partnership.

- ALLEN S. WEINER, Senior Lecturer in Law at Stanford Law School; Director, Stanford Program on International and Comparative Law; and Co-Director, Stanford Center on International Conflict and Negotiation

ASIL's academic partnership is a fabulous way for our faculty, staff, and students to stay connected from our Midwest location. Students enjoy the webinars on international law careers as well as the Annual Meeting. Ability of our career services staff to meet student demands is enhanced by ASIL's training.

- ADRIEN K. WING, Associate Dean of International & Comparative Law, Bessie Dutton Murray Professor of Law at University of Iowa College of Law

50% DISCOUNT
on ASIL membership
for all faculty, staff and students

For more information about program benefits contact
Jack Karako 📞 202.939.6003
✉️ jkarako@asil.org
asil.org/academicpartner

American Society of International Law