Call For Submissions
ASIL-Midwest Interest Group
2024 Virtual Works-in-Progress Workshop
Friday, March 15, 2024

ASIL-Midwest is co-sponsoring its 10th Annual Scholarly Works-in-Progress Workshop which will be hosted virtually by Hitik Law, LLC on Friday, March 15, 2024. The goal is to create a friendly, open conversation about works in progress and to foster a Midwestern United States and Canada international law community. To that end, the workshop will include both full drafts and early works in progress. The workshop will be completely virtual.

Those interested in presenting at the workshop should send a 500-word abstract to workshop@hitiklaw.com by Friday, January 26, 2024. Please include the following in the subject line of your email: "ASIL-Midwest Workshop 2024." Also please include a sentence about the expected stage the paper will be in at the time of the workshop (e.g., reasonably complete draft, early work in progress, etc.). Papers may address any international law topics, and this Call for Submissions is open to everyone in the international legal community. Preference will be given to ASIL members who are also members of the ASIL-Midwest Interest Group. Paper presenters will be asked to circulate their drafts (or a summary of the project if it is in an early stage) to workshop attendees no later than Friday, March 1, 2024.

Each presenter will be expected to comment on another paper and/or actively participate in discussion. Commentators will be asked to prepare five to ten minutes of comments on their assigned paper that will serve to begin the discussion. Further details about how the virtual workshop will be held will be distributed closer to the date of the workshop.

For any questions about papers and presentations, as well as workshop logistics, please email Talin A. Hitik, Esq. at workshop@hitiklaw.com.
