***

Call for panel proposals and papers - ASCL annual meeting

The American Society of Comparative Law (ASCL) has just issued a call for proposals for (1) concurrent panels and (2) a works in progress conference to be held in association with the ASCL 2019 Annual Meeting, which will be held at the University of Missouri School of Law between Thursday, October 17, and Saturday, October 19, 2019. The event is open to ASCL and non-ASCL members.

The theme of the Annual Meeting is “Comparative Law and International Dispute Resolution Processes” and will feature presentations on how comparative law affects various types of cross-border conflict, including but not limited to litigation, arbitration and mediation. Concurrent panels and works in progress papers need not fall within this general theme, although of course they may. Multilingual panel proposals will be considered as part of ASCL's mission to foster plurilingualism.

Information on the event, including the call for panel proposals and works in progress submissions, is available at http://law.missouri.edu/faculty/symposia/comparative-law-international-dispute-resolution-processes/ Proposals will be accepted until May 20, 2019.

Dear Ms. Beharry and Prof. Porrata-Doria

I was hoping that you would be able to pass the email below on to the ASIL-Minorities in International Law Interest Group. This promises to be a fun and fascinating conference at the University of Dayton and we'd love to see as many of our ASIL colleagues there as possible.

best
Dalindyebo Shabalala

Confirmed panelists include:

Carlos Bernal, Justice of the Supreme Court of Colombia
Dr. Saatvika Rai - University of Toledo, Political Science
Prof. Cinnamon Carlarne, The Ohio State University Moritz School of Law
Prof. Julia Ya Qin, Wayne State University Law School
Prof. Juscelino Colares, Case Western Reserve University School of Law
Andreas Bummel, Co-founder and director of Democracy Without Borders

Prof. Susanne Zwingel – Florida International University, Political Science
Prof. Matiangai Sirleaf – University of Pittsburgh Law School
Prof. Diane Desierto, University of Notre Dame Law School

Error! Filename not specified.
Sponsors:
American Branch of the International Law Association, University of Dayton School of Law and the University of Dayton Human Rights Center

Error! Filename not specified.

Date: March 16, 2019
Location: Mathias H. Heck Courtroom at Keller Hall
Cost: Free but you must register

Error! Filename not specified.

Keynote Speaker:
Justice Carlos Bernal of the Constitutional Court of Colombia. Justice Bernal will address the situation of Colombia which has just emerged from one of the longest running domestic and transnational conflicts in recent memory.

Error! Filename not specified.

Other Panels:
Human Rights and Humanitarian Law
Norms in International Refugee and Asylum Law

Environmental Law
Climate Change and the Point of No Return

International Economic Law
Trade Norms, New Norms?

Global Governance
Reconstruction or Falling Through the Cracks?
CLE credit of 6.0 hours is pending in Ohio
Those wanting CLE credit from other states will have to request it on their own.

The symposium is made possible by

Register (Free!) International Law Weekend Midwest/Gilvary Symposium
(March 16, 2019) - https://www.udayton.edu/law/events/gilvary-symposium.php
See my publications at: http://ssrn.com/author=553625
Follow me on Twitter: @Dyebo
Read my blog: IP& - dalishabalala.wordpress.com

Dalindyebo Shabalala, J.D., Ph.D.
Assistant Professor
University of Dayton School of Law

Assistant Professor, International Economic Law (Intellectual Property)
Fellow, Institute for Globalisation and International Regulation
(www.igir.org)
Faculty of Law, Maastricht University, Maastricht, The Netherlands