

Yearbook of International Disaster Law

At the occasion of the launch of the call for abstracts of Issue no. 3 \(2020\) of the Yearbook of International Disaster Law published by Brill, the Editors, in cooperation with the American Society of International Law Disaster Law Interest Group and the Jean Monnet Project DILAW4EU, are pleased to organize a series of webinars

SECOND WEBINAR

Tuesday 29th September (18-19.15 CEST). 'A Snapshot of the Thematic Section of Issue no. 2: "Disasters and...: Exploring New Areas of Research"'. Link to the MS Team Webinar

Moderator

Anastasia Telesetsky (University of Idaho, Chairperson ASIL Disaster Law Interest Group)

Confirmed speakers

Giovanna Adinolfi (Milan University), Strengthening Resilience to Disasters through International Trade Law: The Role of WTO Agreements on Trade in Goods

Dan Farber (University of California, Berkeley Law), The Intersection of International Disaster Law and Climate Change Law

Jonathan Todres (Georgia State University), Children and Disasters: The Essential Role of Children's Rights Law

Tommaso Natoli (University College Cork), Disasters and...: Some Perspectives from the IDL in Practice Section

Participation is free of charge and available through above link to MS Teams. The webinar include a Q&A session and will be recorded.
Time zone: CEST.

Further updates at:  @YearbookIDL and ASIL Disaster Law Interest Group

American Society of International Law

With the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

BRILL